STATE TREASURER OF OHIO

Momentum Grows for Statewide Government Transparency with Over 720 Local Government and School Districts Partnering with OhioCheckbook.com

Press Release - Ohio Treasurer's Office

HOLGATE & ndash; Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel announced today the launch of the Henry County, Village of Malinta, Village of Liberty Center and the Holgate Local School District online checkbooks on OhioCheckbook.com. In December 2014, Treasurer Mandel launched OhioCheckbook.com, which sets a new national standard for government transparency and for the first time in Ohio history puts all state spending information on the internet. OhioCheckbook.com recently earned Ohio the number one government transparency ranking in the country for a second year in a row.

The Ohio Treasurer's office was joined at today's announcement by Henry County Auditor Kevin Garringer, Village of Liberty Center Finance Director Sally McEwen and Councilmember Jerry Endicott, Holgate Local Schools Treasurer Lisa Shanks, and State Representative Robert McColley.

Henry County, Malinta, Liberty Center and Holgate Local Schools are the first entities in Henry County to post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com. Henry County is also the 19th county in the state to post their spending on OhioCheckbook.com.

The following is a breakdown of today's local government sites:

Henry County's online checkbook includes over 12,000 individual transactions that represent more than $48 million of total spending over Fiscal Year 2016.

Malinta's online checkbook includes over 2,000 individual transactions that represent more than $850,000 of total spending over Fiscal Years 2013 and 2014.

Liberty Center's online checkbook includes over 14,000 individual transactions that represent more than $4.3 million of total spending over the past three Fiscal Years.

Holgate Local Schools' online checkbook includes over 77,000 individual transactions that represent more than $46 million of total spending over the past four Fiscal Years.

"I believe the people of Henry County have a right to know how their tax money is being spent, and I applaud local leaders here for partnering with my office to post the finances on OhioCheckbook.com," said Treasurer Mandel. "By posting local government spending online, we are empowering taxpayers across Ohio to hold public officials accountable."

"The Village of Malinta is extremely proud to be a part of a pioneer group of Henry County entities to allow our constituents unprecedented access to their local governments," said Treasurer Deb Wulff.

"The Village of Liberty Center is honored to be one of the first in Henry County entities to share their expenses with hard working tax payers," said Finance Director Sally McEwen.

"Holgate Local Schools is looking forward to being a leader in Henry County on OhioCheckbook.com, by providing our constituents unprecedented access to the district's finances," said Treasurer Lisa Shanks. "This added level of transparency further illustrates the commitment of fiscal stewardship we have to our taxpayers."

"The transparency efforts being put forth are tremendous," said State Representative Robert McColley. "With OhioCheckbook.com, Ohioans will better see where their money is going and how it is being spent. By providing this information to Ohioans, we are educating and empowering our taxpayers."

On April 7, 2015 Treasurer Mandel sent a letter to 18,062 local government and school officials representing 3,962 local governments throughout the state calling on them to place their checkbook level data on OhioCheckbook.com and extending an invitation to partner with his office at no cost to local governments. These local governments include cities, counties, townships, schools, library districts and other special districts.

A large coalition of statewide and local government organizations have expressed support for OhioCheckbook.com and local government transparency, including:

- Ohio Municipal League
- Ohio Township Association
- Ohio Association of School Business Officials
- Buckeye Association of School Administrators
- County Commissioner Association of Ohio
- County Auditor Association of Ohio
- Ohio Newspaper Association
- Ohio Society of CPAs
- Buckeye Institute
- Common Cause Ohio

OhioCheckbook.com was launched on December 2, 2014, marking the first time in Ohio history when citizens could actually see every expenditure in state government. Since its launch, OhioCheckbook.com has received overwhelming support from newspapers and groups across the state and, as of June 13, 2016 there have been more than 553,000 total searches on the site.

OhioCheckbook.com displays more than $529 billion in spending over the past eight years, including more than 146 million transactions. The website includes cutting-edge features such as:

- "Google-style" contextual search capabilities, to allow users to sort by keyword, department, category or vendor;
- Fully dynamic interactive charts to drill down on state spending;
- Functionality to compare state spending year-over-year or among agencies; and,
- Capability to share charts or checks with social media networks, and direct contact for agency fiscal offices.

In March 2015, the U.S. Public Interest Research Group (U.S. PIRG) released their annual "Following the Money 2015" report and Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one transparency ranking in the country for providing online access to government spending data. Ohio was prominently featured in the report after climbing from 46th to 1st in spending transparency as a result of Treasurer Mandel's release of OhioCheckbook.com. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio received a perfect score of 100 points this year — the highest score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.

In April 2016, U.S. PIRG announced that Treasurer Mandel earned Ohio the number one government transparency ranking in the country for the second consecutive year in a row. Due to the launch of OhioCheckbook.com, Ohio again received the highest perfect score of 100 points this year — marking the second time in two years Ohio received the highest possible score in the history of the U.S. PIRG transparency rankings.

The Treasurer's office is partnering with OpenGov, a leading Silicon Valley government technology company, to provide residents of Ohio the ability to view and search local government expenditures in a user-friendly, digital format. "Ohio is setting the standard for financial transparency on an unprecedented scale. We are excited to partner with the Treasurer's office to bring world-class technology to communities large and small across the state," said Zachary Bookman, CEO of OpenGov.
