

OASBO 2020 AC Fast Fiscal Facts - Communicating Financial Information

Course Description Quick Guide

Course Name	Course Description
OASBO 2020 AC Fast Fiscal Facts - Communicating Financial Information Todd Puster, Treasurer, Orange City School District	This course will provide an overview about how to present fiscal information to citizens and stakeholders of school districts and similar political subdivisions in a straightforward manner using specific examples developed by the presenter for communicating to the citizenry of the Orange City School District. 1 The course will provide guidance for local government fiscal leaders about how to communicate meaningful fiscal information about in an accurate, concise and precise manner. Actual presentation examples will be analyzed and dissected. Stakeholder communication is the obligation of every political subdivision. Citizens deserve concise and precise communications about fiscal matters from fiscal officers in everyday language they can understand. Such communication underpins democratic processes and governmental accountability.