

OASBO Monthly Webinar - Non-Teaching Contracts

Course Description Quick Guide

Course Name	Course Description
Non-Teaching Contracts Megan Greulich, Associate, Weston Hurd LLP	The course will provide essential information about important contract terms, employment practices to support planned employment actions, and tips for addressing difficult situations related to contractual terms and separation from employment. Understanding the importance of strong contractual terms and implementing those terms appropriately helps to position Districts positively for dealing with difficult employment-related decisions in compliance with relevant legal obligations.